JULY 2026 NEWSLETTER

It goes without question that we should imitate Jesus (1 Cor. 11:1). He is our supreme example who will never fail us. Yet we need earthly, everyday examples to imitate as well. A person we can point our friends, our sons and our daughters to and say, “go live like him, like her!” The Bible gives us one such person in 3 John, verse 12. Demetrius is his name. We read that, Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself; and we add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true.” Over time people have watched this man and found him to be a man of integrity and godliness. His was a life that was above reproach and beyond question. My guess is that Demetrius was a man who walked with God and studied His Word; a man who loved Jesus and loved the lost. Ask yourself the question, “could others point to me and say, imitate him, or imitate her because those characteristics are evident in my life?” As you go about your day, be careful who you watch. Be on the lookout for a Demetrius. More importantly, be mindful of who watches you.
